The Disciplinary Wives Club

The Disciplinary Wives Club (DWC) is an organization that supports couples who are practicing, or are considering practicing, a domestic discipline lifestyle, where the wife or female partner (or designated partner in same-sex couples) is the head of the household (HOH). The DWC also provides support for individuals who would like to find a partner with whom to practice the lifestyle.

While each DWC couple practices the lifestyle in their own way, the lifestyle generally involves the wife (or female partner) being in charge of some, or all, aspects of the couple's relationship. The husband (or male partner) is expected to follow certain behavioral rules set by the wife, and when he does not, he is disciplined by the wife. While that discipline can take a variety of forms, the most common form of discipline is spanking.

Unlike spanking-play or BDSM, the discipline administered by the wife in a DWC relationship is not foreplay or directly sexual, but is for behavioral modification. Generally, it is the husband that initiates discussion about adopting the lifestyle, and the men in the lifestyle are the ones who desire to be disciplined. Most men in the lifestyle have what would be considered a spanking fetish, in addition to a need to be disciplined.

The organization was started in 1994 by Aunt Kay and her husband Jerry, who, in adopting the lifestyle themselves, discovered there was very little support or material to assist them. Over the last 16 years, they have helped thousands of couples and individuals. Additionally, they have created a library of instructional material, including booklets and videos. The DWC's website (www.auntkaysdwc.com), provides a wealth of support material, including how-to sections and instructive letters from those actually practicing the lifestyle.

Participation in the organization is completely confidential. The lifestyle is usually kept private, and often secret, because non-participants might be uncomfortable with it. The DWC is not about the disciplining or spanking of children. The DWC does not support the use of discipline in any non-consensual or abusive manner. The DWC is about the practice of the lifestyle in a loving and consensual relationship, promoting extensive communication between partners.

The Second Survey

This is the second survey of the DWC. The DWC plans to conduct additional surveys in future, building from what has been learned in the first two surveys.

The first survey of the DWC focused on three areas: who we are, how we practice the lifestyle, and how we find partners. From the 15,081 question responses, there were 1,648 comments that were provided by the participants to various questions.

This, the second survey, was conducted from December 2007 to July 2008 using SurveyMonkey.com (www.surveymonkey.com). The participation in the survey was anonymous, and the results were provided back to the DWC as raw data without analysis. While anyone who found the survey online could take it, participants were solicited by a link prominently posted on the DWC website inviting participation. About 1250 participated in the survey.

These results have been categorized and summarized in this report. Additionally, many of the actual comments which were representative, insightful, or just interesting, have been included. These comments may have been edited by the authors of this report to correct spelling and grammatical errors, for length or content, or to remove personal information to protect the identity of the participant.

The authors of this report have offered their own analysis and opinions regarding the results of the survey; however, Aunt Kay and Jerry would be delighted to hear your thoughts regarding the results. Please feel free to email Aunt Kay at shetops@gmail.com and Jerry at kajserry@gmail.com.

- "My then wife announced it at a dinner party! I was embarrassed, but the other members of the party didn't seem to be."
- "My wife told her best friend. I'm embarrassed, but that was it."
- "My wife told it to her best friend. no consequences as it was quite acceptable to her."
- "Once when my partner was leaving on a business trip her manager said something like I would probably be having lots of wild parties over the weekend. She replied that I had better not or "he will be getting a damn good spanking." He asked me if she was kidding and I assured him that she was not. I don't remember what he said but it was not negative and he never brought it up again. I was a bit surprised and embarrassed when she said it but his reaction made me comfortable. By the time we separated a lot of people knew."

"One woman who is friend of my wife told her husband who I play golf with was embarrassing but I was open when he asked me."

"Our new pastor initiated a no smoking, anywhere on church property, rule and a no drinking rule at any event on church property. I broke the no smoking rule and was told not to do that again by the pastor. It happened during a meeting break. The second time it happened, I thought her rule was not fair. I smoked out in my car, admittedly on church property, but in my car. My wife was at that meeting and someone told pastor about the smoking. Pastor did confront me and did so in front of my wife, mentioning the 1st time and being told not to do that again. My wife not only announced I front of pastor that I was going to be spanked when we got home, but that she was assigning me community service hours - cleaning - for a couple of Saturdays. I not only felt embarrassed and humiliated then, but the next three Saturdays I got to do a lot of scrubbing."

"Overheard it while at our home."

"She shared with some of her friends. No consequences except for teasing."

"We have received mailings that kids opened. Jane has told my mother that I "get punished" but didn't mention spanking."

"Wife spanked me bare in front of her friends."

"Wife told her girlfriends...no consequences..Wife told me one of her friends would like to spank me, but it never happened."

"Wife told someone. No consequences."

"Each and every Sun. at 11:0 AM I am disciplined by my mom, older sister, and partner. One will lower my pants and shorts and read the offenses for the week and determine the amount. The other 2 will provide the discipline. On several occasions a college girlfriend was staying at the house and my partner openly told the girlfriend and invited her to watch and participate. It was to be a learning experience for her, and it was. There were no consequences other than my bottom hurting more than normal as her marriage frustrations were taken out by her on my bottom."

- "Bath brush is wonderful - I prefer to get the strap - totally naked."
- "Better selection of canes."
- "Booklets."
- "Bould you stress less severe spanking as an option."
- "Cock rings: the elastic bands around broccoli in the supermarket; also women's hair elastics."
- "Dominator is very intense!"
- "Don't change anything. They rock. Bad boys get spanked!"
- "Enjoyed the books."
- "Everything was great."
- "Excellent quality."
- "Generally good as a starting point for a partner."
- "Generally I have found the DWC products to be excellent. My only comment would be that the actual spanking scenes in the videos are not as "severe" as one would expect based on the description of a spanking outlined in the techniques section, and certainly not as severe as the actual DWC style spankings that I have received from both my former DWC partner and my current DWC partner. Perhaps there is a need for a video for the "advanced" DWC couple."
- "Good quality products and very helpful written material."
- "Great and informative."
- "Holy terror is very effective."
- "Holy terror-wife says needs a longer handle or similar paddle with longer handle. She says cannot hit as hard as she wants to with it."
- "How can I convince my wife that it is Ok to spank me Often and for any reason she sees fit."
- "I came here to look for products to buy."
- "I like to use them, and I like them for Discipline and training students?"
- "I own the DWC Special edition Video and while it is informative it was (I thought) just a little too clinical. I thought it needed to be just a little more romantically slanted in order for me to have my wife watch it with me."
- "I prefer smaller wooded paddles and bristly brushes."
- "I recently received the new Caning Book and DVD and though the booklet is very good, I feel DVD left something to be desired. The video was very amateurish and really should have been produced with much more instruction, and by a more experienced person. Caning is an art and can be an incredible experience if done properly. Too bad that aspect of it wasn't demonstrated fully."
- "I think the video on caning could have been a superior product however, I found the host to be too young and inexperienced to be able to give a proper lesson. The "art" of caning should be more fully developed as it is one of the most effective methods of getting one's point across..."
- "I was disappointed in the video. The sub was boring and unattractive."
- "I was disappointed when you discontinued the "schoolmarm" paddle."
- "I would have ordered quite a few things if you accepted credit cards and not just pay pal or order form orders."
- "It would be nice to have some new products and very vanilla booklets with some cute cartoons or art and very feminine and domestic oriented."
- "Make more! Perhaps more of one on how to start it...what to do when the wife is too tired to discipline....what to do about men who misbehave on purpose to get spankings..."
- "Make one single book and package of spanking items with available choices."
- "Manuals are quite wordy but otherwise very good."
- "More variety of spanking tools would be nice."
- "My bottom is red."

- "My previous spouse destroyed them, and I wish I had another copy to share with my current open minded wife."
- "My wife, mother, sister have riding crops, cat-o-nine tails, leather strap."
- "No product complaints unless my Mistress has the products and doesn't use them on me any longer."
- "Presented them to my wife and she refused to read them."
- "Satisfied."
- "Terrific."
- "The booklets did not explain to my wife how to spank me, or how to get over the fear of hurting me. We have been using the DWC for 6 months and she still not able to let it all go. We do speak about it a lot."
- "The booklets were a bit thin and contained the same info as the site."
- "The CP demos in the DVD seem unrealistic and not like real discipline. However the talking by the wives is very good and helpful."
- "The expense with little sampling and description have precluded me from making a booklet or video purchase. We have considered The Dominator but, again, price has been the issue along with the inability to actually hold the item to check weight and comfort."
- "The ferule is really a painful paddle."
- "The lifestyle booklets were very informative and tried to put the DWC lifestyle within the framework of a caring, committed relationship, which is what I want. I know Claudia and Floyd, and will probably buy Claudia's video after reading about it in the last survey."
- "The materials sometimes focus too much on prurient interest."
- "The otk cane hurts like hell."
- "The OTK paddle was created half-ass...not very good quality...didn't look like the pic on the website."
- "The paddles and other implements are my wife's favorites. In the videos the women are great. But the guys seem too wimpy at times."
- "The photos and videos could be much better quality and better promote the DWC lifestyle."
- "The scolding is usually bad. They're not actors."
- "They are good. They have certainly got me to thinking over the years."
- "They are great!"
- "They are great. Love the videos. I purchased one of your paddles. One time the wood split while in use (ouch). You replaced it with no questions and very promptly. I was impressed."
- "They are rather effective!"
- "They have all been excellent."
- "They hurt."
- "They should be easier to get hold of."
- "Think products are very good!"
- "Very good products --that holy terror is in a class by itself."
- "Very informative."
- "We got a paddle and it split the first time we use it."
- "We have been satisfied."
- "Wish I could get my wife to practice them more."
- "Wish more were available."
- "Yes. The website has some extremely useful information, but that is not immediately obvious. The site looks old and is somewhat cumbersome to use. It could really use an overhaul. The photos and booklet artwork make the DWC seem more lurid than it is in my life. Some of the videos had good stuff, but some felt icky. I do really like the implements-good quality and effective."
- "You should make some videos with males in the late twenty age bracket."
- "Your booklets are complete. Wonderful, well-written."

Are there any products that you would like to see the DWC offer (explain)?

- " A booklet on how to find a partner."
- " A brochure or something to introduce outsiders to the lifestyle. Maybe a discussion board or something to give and get advice anonymously (moderated or password protected to keep out the immature stuff). Training materials that are a bit more academic."
- " A folding padded spanking bench, which could hold a man in position until his paddling is done, but which folds like a trestle table so no-one needs to see it standing around."
- " A good longer paddle made of lexan and a good martinette that will sting for self use since I cannot get wife to do it to me."
- " A good solid wood spanking hairbrush."
- " A selection of hairbrushes."
- " A traditional hairbrush."
- " A video (or tape) featuring a DWC seminar where wives espouse the virtues of the DWC relationship. Much like a video or audio version of your guestbook. No actual spanking needed."
- " A video or pamphlet about creative punishments for a more serious crime. Like my ex and last DWC partner if she found out I looked at another girl she would make me wear her panties for a little bit then get me over her lap and spank me with them on then pull them down and spank me with the hair brush after a few times with that I never looked at another woman until after the relationship was over."
- " Access to some printed material to help me understand my partner's need to be spanked."
- " Advice about the kinds of problems that come up. For example, when he tries to back out; or when she feels too tired or overwhelmed by being in charge. How to back up the CP with other discipline. How to deal with guilt over causing pain. Etc."
- " Although it seems like your products offered has been reduced, I am currently considering your new caning book/video. I believe it would greatly help my current partner become comfortable in using one."
- " Anything involving young couples."
- " Backbone to get over the embarrassment of the initial shock and courage to sleep on the bed I made."
- " Better quality photo galleries and video products."
- " Booklet materials in electronic form, or read on CD, MP3 etc. so that they would be accessible for blind and visually impaired persons."
- " Booklet on how to tell her."
- " Canes."
- " Catoninetails whip."
- " Classy how to videos."
- " Clothing."
- " Cock restraints."
- " Coffee Cups."
- " Connections with couples that live in our area."
- " Downloadable literature."
- " Downloads of the videos! Cheaper videos. Many, many, more updates. We'd be willing to pay for a subscription to this site, if there was weekly updates- even just readers' letters and guest book entries, which is our favorite."
- " DWC instructions as free PDF file."
- " E-cards would be nice...not enough f/m e-cards."
- " Enema."
- " Hairbrushes! Both wood and plastic like those from my childhood. Oval shaped."
- " Hairbrushes, paddles straps and tawses."

- "I thought your "schoolmarm" paddle was a true classic and was disappointed when it was discontinued."
- "Illustrated booklets, pictures of real spanking couples (doesn't have to include facials)."
- "Instruction manuals and videos for the wife."
- "Intergenerational with witnesses. I'd buy that."
- "Internet Forum, a book store."
- "Large wooden hairbrush because it is almost impossible to find them. One designed for spanking that is inconspicuous."
- "Larger Spencer type paddle."
- "Leather straps."
- "Long and intense spanking DVDs; group spanking DVDs; large, thick paddles (e.g.:22x3 1/2x1) or similar, with optional large (1" or larger) sharp-edged holes; some paddles with very coarse sandpaper glued to one side."
- "Male chastity devices. A good method of maintaining control and discipline."
- "Male chastity devices."
- "Male chastity products, Victorian nightwear, costumes,."
- "Man-made non breakable canes."
- "Martinet; crop; tawse; leather paddle with holes."
- "More about committed marriages that are considering or participate in DWC methods for marriage."
- "More articles and stories."
- "More DVD's about the subject."
- "More help to persuade my very vanilla and reluctant wife to give DWC a try. She is so much the in charge person in her relationships with others that she is known as "The General". Maybe she is stressed by her daily exercise of power and wants to give up power in our personal relationship (lol). I've never seen any sign of that, but she has misused our resources to support her work."
- "More instructional videos."
- "More paddles & other spanking implements."
- "More personal ads."
- "More restraints."
- "More spanking instruments, more dialog about the lifestyle."
- "More strict ladies in the connections listings."
- "More video tutorials showing maternal spankings delivered on the seat of the underpants."
- "More videos, & implements."
- "Movie clips."
- "My fiancé wants a good hair brush and various sizes of paddles."
- "My wife has mentioned she would like a DWC paddle or the rubber thing for a gift and feels I should buy it."
- "No but I'm disappointed to stumble on this blatant marketing ploy in the midst of what I thought was a 'serious" survey!!' Phblapppppt!!"
- "Not sure. I just know that anything offered by DWC will be of the highest quality and appropriate to the DWC lifestyle."
- "Other paddles especially rubber type."
- "paddles, canes."
- "paddles, hairbrushes, tawse."
- "Products look great, but my wife would be mortified if the products were unwrapped by local customs officials, so I don't have any of the products. She will whip my ass very hard, but is sensitive that others would not approve if they know about it. I think many other men right here in our community have their asses whipped often by their wives, and she thinks so too, but thinks they all want it to be a secret too."
- "Professional lady spankers, there obviously are a lot of men in need of spankings and not enough ladies to go around."
- "Quicker update of website."
- "Rattan Canes."

- "Real life videos."
- "Remote shock collar."
- "Restraint devices."
- "Riding crop."
- "Rubber sole slippers."
- "Shorter and updated lifestyle books."
- "Something like the old Lady Susan site. There are quite a few men keeping blogs about this but no women that I know of. It would be nice to hear the female perspective. The guestbook is way too infrequently updated. If it were an active site I would pay to be a member."
- "Spanking benches."
- "Spanking implements and DVD's."
- "Spanking implements, stories, pictures."
- "Spanking wives."
- "Spatulas - solid metal and bright plastic ones."
- "Still new to this site, have seen it a few times but have little time for exploring as too busy with domestic chores. Today is a holiday, and I came across it from a link on another site."
- "Straps."
- "Sturdy black spanker as seen in Ms. Betty video feminizing maid costume- not outrageous, my mistress likes cute, not grotesque."
- "Sturdy high chair, with perhaps a footrest, so that when the lady takes her naughty boy over her knee he is completely off the ground."
- "The schoolmarm."
- "The Scottish Tawse (Lochgelly type) and more leather goods?"
- "Training videos for the HOH."
- "Two suggestions: (1) I think you could get younger models (just my preference, but I understand the limitations and difficulties in doing so); and (2) I think that there is a market for more sexually explicit DWC-type spankings. For example, I have never seen a DVD / video where the man is forced to release (perhaps while restrained), and then given a hard spanking. I would enjoy this kind of video. The attraction is that I know that the guy would NOT like that spanking. I bet many DWC men would like this too. But maybe that's too sexually explicit for your website. I might even volunteer for such a video, if my face didn't appear in it."
- "Video of wives using strap-ons on their husbands."
- "Way to meet others nearby....married or non-married."
- "Well, I would like to know your feeling about American author if remember correctly Dorothy Spence and her Spencer Spanking Plan. I would only ever spank to meet the specific needs/requests of my partner."
- "Whips."
- "Wider variety of disciplinary implements."
- "Wooden Bath brush or hairbrush."

- "Afraid to discuss spanking with others."
- "Amuses me to think what co-workers' reactions would be if they knew- but would be embarrassed."
- "At home I am subject to spankings but it is private. I hate getting them, but have been instrumental in getting my wife to use them for my discipline."
- "Because of how it is viewed publically I am forced to keep my desires to myself."
- "Because of my husband's job we have to be discreet or careful about public opinion. Outside our area I verbally announce a spanking in public and don't care who hears me."
- "Chilling effect."
- "Difficult to find opposite partner; Unable to use current residence for sessions."
- "Disinclines me from coming out."
- "Doesn't effect me just disappointing when I suggest it and get the above responses."
- "Doesn't affect me, as for me DWC is a personal and intimate matter."
- "Doesn't affect me. It's too satisfying and good for our marriage to care what others think."
- "Domestic discipline should be normal."
- "DWC talk doesn't leave the house."
- "Exposure in vanilla media-TV has legitimized and generally assisted our relationship."
- "Have to keep it quiet!"
- "Having never heard of adult spanking, outside of the internet, I have to conclude that it is something not looked on with favor."
- "Hiding the positive effects of discipline, all the great results from other's who are so darned closed minded. well it makes me sad."
- "I am cautious for my career."
- "I am reluctant to raise the subject with others, which I regret."
- "I believe it is extremely important and am sorry that is still "in the closet" regarding most public opinion. I am convinced that one of the best things that could happen to our sick society are sound domestic spankings."
- "I believe that because of a public taboo, that my current spouse is very cautious about adopting a DWC lifestyle."
- "I believe that children need some form of spanking, etc. to keep them in line when talking isn't enough."
- "I cannot expose."
- "I can't openly express myself."
- "I do not discuss it with people that I feel I would make uncomfortable by doing so."
- "I do not fit in. I am an outcast."
- "I don't care what anyone else thinks. I am a private person."
- "I don't discuss it, but if it emerged I would be quite happy about admitting my preference for female authority and discipline."
- "I don't know if there IS a public opinion about sexual discipline. I keep it private because I've assumed that it would be shocking and be judged. People occasionally make innuendos that are sexually suggestive--some make me laugh."
- "I don't know what public opinion and I am too chicken to find out."
- "I don't really know what public opinion is about this subject. If it were more out the open than I would be comfortable with some people knowing or socializing with other known lifestyles. The only affect is that I keep it and my wife (I think she does!) keep it private for fear of people thinking we're weird or something."
- "I don't really know what the public opinion is, but I do tend to shy away from publicly discussing my desire."

- "I don't talk about it to anyone other than my lovely wife."
- "I doubt I am much affected by it, other than it is simply not talked about. I am not sure what I think of it myself. There is a difference between sex games of "make-believe" discipline and real discipline, and I haven't quite figured out which this site is about yet."
- "I fear that most would disapprove."
- "I have largely come to a point where I accept my need for being disciplined. This means I have overcome a state in which I was constantly wondering if public opinion might be right and there is something wrong with me. Public opinion still influences me however. It keeps me from being open about those needs and makes secrecy necessary and this can be irksome. I also feel that it is not cowardice that keeps me from being open. I just feel that the people around me simply would not be able to understand. (Sorry for my English)."
- "I have not heard it discussed."
- "I hold several high positions in the community service and charity arenas and DD is not considered acceptable sine it can be misused. If found out I would be ejected from these positions and since I feel that I do more good than others have in these positions I would not choose to be exposed for believing in DD so I generally avoid the issue."
- "I ignore it as best I can."
- "I keep my desires totally hidden."
- "I keep my interest private."
- "I keep opinion to myself."
- "I keep quiet about it."
- "I live in a family orientated suburb. I doubt if anyone spansks their children."
- "I live in a huge city...opinion is reserved for the few who are into and know the scene, and within, it's cool."
- "I live in an accepting community, so it affects me in a positive way."
- "I mind my own business."
- "I now live in a small town, so you got to be very discreet."
- "I people knew I was spanked I feel they would think less of me."
- "I regret the public option, it makes me angry!"
- "I think it is a private matter within families."
- "I think my wife would be more comfortable with it, and use it more freely if she felt it was part of normal life."
- "I think that discretion should be used in that regard."
- "I try to be very discrete."
- "I try to ignore public opinion which tends to be biased and uninformed."
- "I wish I could be more out in the open about my being disciplined by my wife."
- "I wish it could be more open."
- "I wish it was spoken about more, it would make it easier to live with."
- "I wish it were more open and accepted."
- "I would like it to be more acceptable and talked about. There are times I get a warning about getting spanked or told I am going to be spanked and sometimes it is definitely heard by others. Some of our friends would applaud and others are afraid to react in front of us."
- "I would like it to be more acceptable. I think our society would benefit from firm female discipline."
- "I would like it to be more accepted."
- "I would like to be more open about the fact that I can and do indeed spank my husband."
- "I would very much like to be able to talk and meet others here but it is a very conservative State."
- "I would want to be discreet about my interest in DD to avoid any social repercussions from others who don't understand the interest -- but potentially negative public opinion about DD does not deter me from wanting it to be a part (a key, CENTRAL part) of my life!"
- "If someone you know discovers you have female disciplinarian or partner who spansks you, it would be very hard to socially interact with these people again. The embarrassment and teasing would greatly affect me. However, if some of her friends I had not previously known were to find out it would be embarrassing but tolerable. Even if she were to tell them and permit them to watch her administer my spanking, it would be very embarrassing, but also a sexual turn-on at the same

- time, but my spanking would be just as hard and long as we are alone. Ohhhh what a delightful fantasy!!"
- "I'm not sure, but my work as an Adult Protective Services Investigator might be scrutinized if my interests in spanking and corporal punishment became public knowledge."
- "Inhibiting."
- "Isolating."
- "It bothers me."
- "It disturbs me, because discipline is not bad if its handled properly?"

- "It does not affect me at all. I want to be spanked, and if it could happen full time I would be very happy."
- "It does not affect me. I just do not bother to listen to people with no understanding, it is pointless."
- "it does not because we keep it private."
- "It does not change my feelings about it. I embrace it as a wonderful part of my life. However, I do not speak of it publicly."

In other words that it was not considered particularly remarkable but was fairly normal practice."
- "It doesn't, because I live in the downtown of a city that is rather open."
- "It doesn't. I don't care what other people do. I don't want to know what THEY do. What WE do works for us. Spanking my husband on a regular basis keeps our marriage calm, cool, and collected. And he doesn't actually LIKE to be spanked anymore, but he enjoys the afterglow of it."

- "It s opposite than mine but I don t care."
- "It would be nice to discuss it with someone."
- "It would be socially embarrassing, especially for my wife."
- "It's accepted - no one I know disapproves."
- "It's funny really everyone is publicly anti discipline/spanking but when you talk privately it's very very different thing."
- "It's unheard of and not allowed."
- "Keep it private because I assume others would be uncomfortable with it."

We are religious people, and see consensual sexual activity (that isn't harmful) as a private gift with many acceptable expressions. As long as we are satisfied, private, and discrete, public opinion isn't an issue."

- "Prefer it kept quiet."
- "Prevents me from coming forward."
- "Public opinion about domestic adult discipline requires that we keep our disciplinary arrangement as a private matter."
- "Public opinion is favorable. Whether it is or is not would not change my interests or needs."
- "Represses sharing, discussion, involvement in."
- "Seems everyone mentions spanking often, at work, or at gatherings."
- "Seen as something kinky or a fetish but not something to be taken seriously."
- "Since it is not spoken about, I am uncertain how common it is."
- "Somewhat limiting."
- "Spanking material( books, videos, instruments etc,) is much more accessible."
- "The community where I live is very conservative, so I have to be very careful about what I say and do related to my desire for a DWC relationship. It's difficult imagining actually telling someone who lives here about what I'm seeking. This is why it would be nice to meet someone through your site, but there's no woman on there that lives anywhere near me."
- "The nature of spanking keeps it behind closed doors. It also makes it difficult to admit the desire to a potential mate. It seems like no one really has interest in it. My guess is that 99% of the responses you will receive will be from men."
- "This area is so conservative that my wife and I do not discuss our lifestyle openly."
- "This is not discussed. My personal opinion what is done between a husband/wife girlfriend/boyfriend should be between them. It is no one else's business."
- "We are cautious in who we confide in."

- "We/I hate having to keep what we see as perfectly natural and healthy a secret."
- "Well I still get spanked, so yes it does."

"Well in Canada, spanking is viewed at the very least as politically incorrect. This bothers me intensely and I feel the rejection of loving spanking is in part to blame for many of the ills of today's society."

"What goes on in private by consenting adults is their business."

"Whatever floats ones boat and is between consensual adults is their business."

He also has a big fetish for seeing me in white nylon (granny?) panties. I always wear them while spanking him, and around the house in general. It keeps him semi-aroused, and when a spanking is in order, he slips into obedient-boy mode quicker, I've found, because of it. His mother spanked him until he was 16, and she also wore these panties around the house. This is where this all came from for him. I'm happy to oblige. I prefer these panties anyway! skipped question	1112

- "Anything, including this survey, that promotes domestic discipline and spanking in a good light, and not a weird kink is a good thing. Thank you for creating it and keeping it up."
- "As surveys go, this one seems to be very well done."
- "Concerned about maintaining privacy; Incorporate European attitudes."
- "Excellent."
- "Excited about this survey, very well thought out."
- "Few people have just one favorite color. At least I can never choose just one. Several questions didn't have the answer that best fit me."
- "Focus is only on DWC lifestyle, which is understandable. My interests are more towards spanking and discipline for purposes other than behavior modification. Although the idea is appealing to me, it would be nice to expand my understanding of other practices as well."
- "For those of us who have had more than one DWC relationship, it would have been helpful to specify whether the questions should relate to the current DWC relationship, or the longest lasting DWC relationship, etc."
- "Good job! Can't wait to see the results."
- "great survey."
- "Great survey. But I would like to have heard more detail about how spankings really work in a functional sense to make women more aware of the benefits for them."
- "Great, quite liberating for me."
- "Hello I feel that the DWC is an excellent recourse for those interested in spanking and or discipline. I am not certain how I would feel if my wife gave me a severe discipline spanking. I desire to feel her loving feminine control and to be almost constantly aroused by her. I love to give her pleasure and wish that we had more time to play and enjoy each other. I feel that couples need to explore spanking and finds what best suits them as a couple. Thanks for recourse and for helping others."
- "Hope it is private."
- "How about more info on spanking types, frequencies, and implement comparisons."
- "I am in a mutual domestic discipline relationship. We have lists and short term goals. You know... We also trade Dom weekends."
- "I am interested to know that there are other relationships like we have."
- "I am interested my wife would have nothing to do with it and would be furious if she knew of this."
- "I am really impressed with the extent of this survey and how much it encompasses."
- "I could not say what year I first saw the DWC website because I don't remember."
- "I don't fit the categories offered. For example my wife spans me, but there is no assumption of her superiority or HOH status. It's sort of a "get even" thing, plus it turns me and her on sexually. She doesn't want to be spanked, even though she could use it, in my opinion."
- "I don't have a partner."
- "I don't think it applies to non-DWC people."
- "I feel it helps men acknowledge the superiority of women."
- "I get spanked all the time, so I know how it feels, but it's for my own good."
- "I had expected the survey to be more focusing on DWC practices."
- "I have had some debilitating health problems over the last two years. As a result, some of my answers differed from what I would have normally given, especially in regards to hobbies and activities."
- "I haven't seen the results of the last one and I am curious."
- "I hope it helps people like me to find ways to successfully get a CP style relationship going."
- "I like that spanking is taught to women as a dominate method of leading."

- "I love the idea of you surveying and getting this information and publishing it. I think it helps to know that there are others that are interested in this lifestyle."
- "I read the results of the first survey and found them interesting...letting me know my situation is not unique."
- "I really liked this and it was helpful to me."
- "I think it's useful to encourage communication. Results of the first survey were encouraging in that they seemed to show that the sort of people interested in this lifestyle seemed to be fairly ordinary, and not particularly extreme or from any particular background."
- "I think the more we learn about our needs the more we benefit from that knowledge."
- "I think this was a very good and complete survey."
- "I think surveys can help educate."
- "I thought that it was good."
- "I thought the questions were pretty good."
- "I would be interested in more information on what wives want to see from their husbands as a result of the lifestyle."
- "I would like detailed questions about your spankings: duration, frequency, implements, locales, witnesses, positions, relationships, paid spankers, etc."
- "Interesting."
- "Interesting range of questions."
- "It could ask how spanking started, when first spanked, etc. How often spanked now, for what, etc."
- "It did make me think."
- "it is very good that you do this work."
- "It is well thought out, many pertinent points."
- "It seems odd that for something that sounds so specific as DWC, spanking, discipline etc. that it has been so difficult to find others who are on the "same page" personally. Everyone really does seem to have their own ideas in terms of what it's all about. It's very difficult even to imagine what to expect. I wonder if I might be as lucky in finding somebody in the grocery store versus an actual concerted effort through a web site dedicated to such."
- "It was interesting."
- "It was nice."
- "It was the best survey I have every taken!"
- "It was very interesting and I enjoyed the open questions."
- "It's good to get the public's opinions on a regular basis."
- "It's just great."
- "Just being able to fill out this form is an unburdening of what society would snigger at and regard as a dirty little secret. Thanks for giving me the opportunity for half an hour of relief I am so terribly grateful to you that it has brought tears to my eyes xxx."
- "Just wish I had a relationship that would get me spanked on a regular basis."
- "Keep up the good work!"
- "Long."
- "Many questions did not cover my particular situation therefore some answers could not be given accurately."
- "More communication is needed about the spanking/discipline lifestyle."
- "More questions should be asked about how many times you are spanked, either by your wife, mother, sister, friends, children and so on."
- "Nice survey - my compliments!"
- "Nicely done. I am a retired shrink. Perhaps some people would like reassurance from a shrink-spanko."
- "Not enough questions about getting spanked."
- "Not very interesting. Filled out the entire survey waiting for something interesting that never came up. Don't know why anyone would really care about any of this."
- "Please consider a traveling seminar for couples to get more information."
- "Probably should have had "engineering" as a career choice (I have been told that many people in engineering have an interest)."

- "Seems fine to me."
- "Seems to go a bit off track at the end."
- "Should provide meaningful profiles."
- "Some interesting questions."
- "Some of the questions didn't have adequate response choice, or was too restrictive about what could be entered - year of finding DWC for example."
- "Some of the questions I could not answer as there was no option that matched exactly. For example, am trained in complementary medicine, time-line therapy, and with time I have become more and more interested in druid beliefs and shamanism, and while I am ok with all religions. For myself I would describe myself is not specifically religious but devoutly spiritual. (I also respect Wicca as belief system.)"
- "Some of the questions seem to have little or no relevance to the big question (in my mind) - why give control to someone. When no sexuality is there, what is the motivation to give up some freedom?"
- "Surveys, such as these, help me to get in touch with my own desires, as much as they give you information, so I find them useful and beneficial. It would be nice if somehow they could be useful in finding a partner."
- "Thank you for attempting to find out what makes a person who needs a spanking tick."
- "Thank you for taking the time and effort to produce this survey."
- "Thank you for the opportunity."
- "Thank you for the opportunity to express my deepest feelings."
- "Thank You."
- "Thanks for letting me participate."
- "The last one was amazing. I read the report and I was truly impressed."
- "There's nothing about scolding."
- "This is a bit too much spanking orientated!"
- "This is awesome, thank you so much."
- "Thoughtful."
- "Thorough, if nothing else, but I enjoyed it."
- "Time will tell but this type of survey can only help."
- "Too new for me."
- "Very good survey and exhaustive."
- "Very good. I think you should do a soft / intro one for people who have never heard about it that members could email to friends and family."
- "Very important. Thank you!"
- "Very informative."
- "Very interesting, looking forward to reading results, when compiled."
- "Very interesting."
- "Very professionally orchestrated."
- "Very thorough."
- "Very thorough- should produce accurate profiles."
- "Very well constructed, well thought out."
- "Very well done."
- "Very well written and presented! Easy to complete."
- "What a great survey. Kudu's to you."
- "Wish I had seen it earlier, and hope that it remains up so that I can publicize it for a while longer."
- "Would be interested in online chat room sponsorship, either constantly or for the focus group."
- "Would like to hear more from others in comment sections."
- "Would like to see results of the "other" fetishes. I am impressed by your codeword idea. (My wife only tolerates spanking me. She would not participate in the survey if I were to beg her.)"
- "Would like to take the first survey! I'm curious how many other women find this to be a maternally-based spanking situation. My husband wants to relive childhood spankings and punishments. Curious if others are like this. Also curious about other childhood punishments that might be employed - time out, grounding, force to wear just underwear all day, diapers, etc."

If you could ask a question in a DWC survey, what would it be (provide question)?

"Are you happy in your DWC relation?"
"Are you interested in strictly DWC or also switching disciplinary roles with your partner?"

"Ask the women how they felt when first approached by their partner."
"Assuming some of the men are like me, just having a need to be spanked, why do you deem it necessary for him to give up being HOH?"

"At what age did you realize you needed to be spanked by a woman?"

- "Have you ever had an orgasm while being spanked? If so, how often?"
- "Have you ever resented a punishment? Have you ever regretted giving a punishment? Do you find you get fed up of being in charge? Do you feel like his mother? Has your man become more childish or more mature as a result of this lifestyle?"
- "Hmmm, I don't know. Just thanks again for creating it and good luck."
- "How active is your sex life? Daily, twice a week, three times a week, weekly, twice a month, monthly, less than once a month. Also, does your DWC relationship carry into the bedroom, or are you equals there?"
- "How can I convince my wife to take part in this lifestyle?"
- "How can I find more info?"

- "How many swats with a Spencer paddle do most wives give for a punishment paddling?"
- "How many use maintenance spankings to reduce the number of discipline spankings needed?"
- "How many women actually enjoy giving spankings?"

- "How many women spank until their partner actually cries? How many women have assumed control of other things such as household money matters?"
- "How often are you spanked."
- "How often do you need or like to be spanked or give a spanking?"
- "How often do you receive discipline. Is DWC full time or just selected times?"
- "How to find more women who like to spank."
- "How to get started."
- "How to meet or introduce a partner to the lifestyle."
- "I find it hard to truly chat with others about it and when I do I get chastised for wanting others to comment on my questions and thoughts. You need more structure for new members to learn from older members and help with the problems that may arise."
- "I think it would be good to ask what DWC wives find difficult when living in the lifestyle."
- "I think there should be an 'active couples' only survey. Questions like, how long have you been doing this, how has it made your life better, how often do you spank, how hard, tears, who decides when a spanking will happen, do children/parents/siblings know, other than when a spanking is taking place how does your family life differ from a non-spanking couple etc. I think that it would provide some good info to curious couples."
- "I would just like help as my fiancé and I develop this relationship."
- "I'd like more questions about the spankings themselves, ie: how hard, is it important to be made to wail uncontrollably, safe words or not etc."
- "If you are interested in DWC relationship, but your partner is not, Why not?"
- "If you are married, do you bring up your children in this lifestyle. Explain why or why not. If you are married, how many times does your wife spank you? Do your family members spank you? How often and by whom?"
- "If you are not in a DWC relationship, do you really know how to find one?"
- "If you aren't in a DWC lifestyle and would like to be, why not?"
- "If you role-play in your DWC spanking, are a mommy, aunt, wife, female boss, policewoman, other?"
- "If your wife/girlfriend experienced abuse as a child and was initially against DWC but came around - what can you tell us about how that changed for her?"
- "I'll think about that one after I read your other survey and email in later."
- "Is corner time (a) an essential part, (b) an incidental part, (c) not part of your DWC relationship?"
- "IS DD a secret society in the UK?"
- "Is receiving discipline or submission to your partner more important to you? Or conversely, is delivering discipline or dominating your partner more important to you?"
- "Is your partner a good scolder? How does the scolding affect you? Does it hurt as much as the spanking? Is your face ever slapped? Is your mouth ever washed out with soap?"
- "It would be a question in view of clarifying the relationship that entails a mix of female and male led components."
- "I've sometimes wondered if there is particular "what you should do next" guidance/suggestions for a wife considering embarking on this. Perhaps its dealt with in the Disciplinary Wife's Handbook, I wouldn't know, but am wondering if there might be a question alluding to how best to access personal advice to women who wish to get this going in their home, or possibly networking for people who wish to meet others in their own geographic area. Perhaps I'm being naive? (Not quite sure what form such a question might take.)"
- "More about the identities of witnesses. I'm into that as a concept."
- "More knowledge about why I want fetish spanking, as opposed to disciplinary."
- "My question is: if both partners agree on following the DWC, and later the man rebels, can the marriage continue?"
- "Once experiencing a female lead relationship with all of the improvements made within a relationship, why has it taken so long to evolve the lifestyle?"
- "Perhaps asking how discipline is determined."
- "Question for males: Do you desire to be dominated and controlled sexually by a female, at least some of the time? For females: If your male partner had a desire to be dominated and controlled sexually by a female, at least some of the time. Would you indulge his fantasy? Would you make it a reality on yours or his terms?"

- "Reasons you spank: punishment, fun, maintenance, warning, sexual stimulation, tension release, mood elevation, special occasions (birthday, anniversary, holiday, etc.) entertainment of friends, instruction of other spankers, taking pictures (still/moving), maintain relationship or hierarchy, general reminder, no reason at all (whim), keep regular schedule, etc."
- "Should I let my neighbors, and landlord, spank me? They take me across their knee and pull my jeans down if I am naughty or cheeky. Do I deserve it?"
- "The question I ask myself - why can't I do things right without punishment waiting in the wings? Why do consequences of this type work to keep me from procrastination? The 'OTK to PhD' video may tell."
- "To women: what is an average session like? How do you know when you're done?"
- "Well, I would want series of questions that determine how many couples are unable to become involved in spanking as one or the other partner is totally vanilla. In terms of general population, would love to know some statistics on how common/prevalent DWC lifestyle is."
- "Were you spanked as a child and by whom; did it have an impact on you?"
- "What is this survey to be used for?"
- "What are the general frequency of spankings; one a day, one a week, one a month, etc? Also, how sound are they and what are the implements usually used? I was very taken with your concluding sentence in your old 'tips and methods' that when he is let up his bottom should be blistered, and you do mean blistered."
- "What implement do you prefer for spanking?"
- "What is the most common reason your wife has for administering a disciplinary spanking?"
- "What is your attitude about whether males or females are most qualified to be HOH?
Collaboration between the two with no HOH?"
- "What is your favorite spanking implement?"
- "What was the primary motivation that got you into a DWC-style relationship?"
- "What was your parents' sexual orientation?"
- "What do you look for in a DWC relationship?"
- "What, to you, is the most important aspect of a spanking?"
- "Where do you meet singles that are interested in the lifestyle?"
- "When did you first receive a spanking from your wife? How does she spank you now? What implements are used? Does she spank you if she knows you have masturbated? Are you allowed to masturbate without her permission? Are you allowed to view adult-oriented materials without her permission?"
- "When did you know that a spanking wasn't just a punishment?"
- "When did you understand fully that you are interested in DWC lifestyle?"
- "When spanked, have you ever been brought to tears?"
- "Where could I find a partner to discipline me?"
- "Where can a 40's years old female to start?"
- "Why are more men interested in being spanked, than there are women to spank them."
- "Why do you partake in a DWC relationship: fun, discipline, punishment, sexual interest, have no choice, it's expected?"
- "Why do you think some people have this kink?"
- "Would you be interested in contacting a similar minded person on this site?"
- "You seem to have thought of everything."

First and foremost, the authors wish to extend their appreciation to the survey participants. We appreciate your efforts responding to the survey and your patience in waiting for the results. The sheer number of responses was overwhelming. The time many participants took in writing comments was a testament to peoples' desire to share their thoughts with others, on a topic that they generally cannot discuss publicly.

Because of the large volume of material generated by the survey, the authors felt that it would make the results more accessible to use representative responses, rather than try to include them all. If you participated in the survey and your comments were not included in this report, please know that the authors read and valued all comments, and had to make some very difficult decisions about what to include.
